

Ohio Bureau of Criminal Identification & Investigation
INVESTIGATIVE REPORT (IR)

On 8-17-00 BCI Special Agent Dennis DiRienzo spoke to ANDREW BRINKLEY, BRINKLEY ELECTRONICS, 8411 N. North Carolina Highway 109, Winston Salem, NC. (336) 769 2902, by telephone. The following information was provided by BRINKLEY and obtained from documents he provided:

BRINKLEY ELECTRONICS is a radio shop that repairs and programs two way radios. If a person wants radio frequencies installed in a two-way radio the person must either be a police officer or provide a copy of their FCC license. If the person is a police officer, BRINKLEY verifies that the person is a police officer and notes it on the invoice.

BRINKLEY verified that [REDACTED] is a New Philadelphia Police Officer by contacting the department by telephone on 6-31-00. This is noted on the invoice. On 6-13-00 [REDACTED] sent an E-mail to BRINKLEY ELECTRONICS inquiring about programming radios and the cost of programming radios. BRINKLEY responded with an E-mail the same day that provided prices. On 7-27-00 [REDACTED] sent an E-mail to BRINKLEY ELECTRONICS informing the business that [REDACTED] sent three radios to be programmed. The E-mail states that two of the radios will be used in unmarked cars. [REDACTED] included his rank as police [REDACTED] and The New Philadelphia Police Department's telephone number. On 7-28-00 BRINKLEY sent [REDACTED] an E-mail thanking him for the business. The BRINKLEY ELECTRONIC'S invoice indicates the cost of the work and shipping was $60.00. The radios involved were three, Maxon 4150EX Mobiles, serial numbers 401T12530, 401T12088 and 950912744B. A list of the radio frequencies that were installed is included on the invoice.

BRINKLEY faxed SA DiRienzo copies of all documents he had regarding the work he did for [REDACTED]. The following documents were received on 8-17-00:

1. E-mail from [REDACTED] to BRINKLEY dated 6-13-2000.
2. Item 1 and an e-mail response from BRINKLEY
3. E-mail to BRINKLEY ELECTRONICS from [REDACTED]
4. E-mail response from BRINKLEY to [REDACTED]
5. BRINKLEY ELECTRONICS Invoice #8576, three pages
6. Copy of a UPS shipping label from BRINKLEY ELECTRONICS to [REDACTED]

The documents have been submitted to the exhibit portion of the case file.

BRINKLEY said this was the only work he did for [REDACTED]
